PEACE IN SIGHT.

Board of Arbitration Is Thought Satisfactory.

CONVENTION TO BE CALLED.

End of Greatest Labor Conflict Known Passing to Peaceful End.

MITCHELL GIVES HIS OPINION.

President Roosevelt Names the Commission to Arbitrate Coal Strike Matters — Mitchell's Requests Are Granted in Selecting Members — Strike Believed to Be Ended.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America, made the following announcement: "I have received a telegram from President Roosevelt advising me of the appointment of his arbitration commission. The convention of miners can be held on Saturday at the latest and can decide to resume work on Monday." One of the district presidents said: "The strike is as good as called off already. The convention will accept Mr. Mitchell's recommendation and will call off the strike."

The commission appointed by the president was as follows: Brigadier General John M. Wilson, United States army, retired (late chief of engineers, United States army); Hon. George Gray, Wilmington, Del., as a judge of the United States court; Mr. E. E. Clark, Cedar Rapids, Ia., grand chief of the Order of Railway Conductors, as a sociologist; Mr. Thomas Watkins, Scranton, Pa., as a man practically acquainted with the mining and selling of coal; Bishop John L. Spalding of Peoria, Ills. The president has added Bishop Spalding's name to the commission. Hon. Carroll D. Wright has been appointed recorder of commission. Mr. E. W. Parker, Washington, D. C., as an expert mining engineer. The personnel of the commission was the subject of much comment.

BRIG. GEN. JOHN M. WILSON.

ident has added Bishop Spalding's name to the commission. Hon. Carroll D. Wright has been appointed recorder of commission. Mr. E. W. Parker, Washington, D. C., as an expert mining engineer. The personnel of the commission was the subject of much comment.

Later President Mitchell issued the following statement: "Appreciating the anxiety and impatience of the public and the mine workers for some authoritative statement from this office, I issue this bulletin to say that I was unalterably opposed to the acceptance of, or acquiescence in the form of settlement proposed by the coal operators, because it restricted the president of the United States in making selection of the men who were to determine the questions involved in the coal strike. These restrictions having been removed and representation given to organized labor as well as to organized capital, I am now prepared to give my personal approval to a settlement of the issues involved in this strike by the commission selected by the president, and shall recommend to the executive officers of districts 1, 7 and 9 in their meeting today that an immediate call be issued for a convention, whose authorization is necessary to declare the strike at an end. In the meantime I trust the people of our country will be as patient as possible as we are moving as rapidly as the interests of our people will permit."

Mr. Mitchell's public statement cleared the situation considerably. It is now for the miners to act and not one person can be found around headquarters who is not of the opinion that the district boards will call the convention and the convention will decide to send the men back to work immediately. It is reasonably certain, the delegates will meet in this city. The members of the three districts came early to headquarters. The principal subject of discussion was the makeup of the commission. Few of the board members had an opinion to express, for the reason that they did not know much about the attitude of the members. Some of them believed the board was favorable to the miners.

After Mr. Mitchell issued his statement he held a conference with the district presidents and secretaries at which a plan to lay the arbitration proposition before the full membership of three boards was discussed.

According to an officer high in the councils of the union, it is probable the convention will be called for Monday, although there is still a possibility that Saturday may be the day.

The convention will be held in this city, providing a suitable hall, capable of seating about 800 delegates is available. The length of the convention will depend upon the amount of debate. At this time it looks as though a general resumption of work will not be effected until next Wednesday or Thursday.

Mitchell Suggested Arbitrators.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Notwithstanding the severe strain incident to the mental and physical labors of the conference on the coal strike, President Roosevelt is at his desk and in excellent spirits. Already the president is in receipt of scores of telegrams of congratulation upon his efforts to effect a settlement of the anthracite coal strike. No doubt is expressed that the miners will accede to the arrangements made by the president and accept the commission of arbitration appointed by him. Indeed it is known already at the White House that the personnel of the commission meets the personal approval of Mr. Mitchell. It is understood in fact that the miners' president suggested to President Roosevelt that in the selection of the members of the committee he include a representative of the clergy and one who was known to be practical, if not in active sympathy with organized labor. His desires in this respect were gratified by the president's appointment of Bishop John Lancaster Spalding and of Mr. E. E. Clark, grand chief of the Order of Railway Conductors. Whether Mr. Mitchell suggested these among other names of men who would be satisfactory to him could not be ascertained. It is understood that those named as members of the commission have indicated to the president their willingness to accept the trust imposed upon them. It has not been determined at this time when or where the commission will hold its sitting. The report of the commission will be made to the president and by him will be communicated to the parties to the controversy and to the general public.

May Not Push Matters.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16.—The information from Washington that both parties to the controversy in the anthracite coal strike had reached an agreement to arbitrate and that the great conflict is about to close, was received throughout the entire hard coal region with the greatest satisfaction, creating considerable excitement in the mining towns. The strikers as a rule, however, following the example of their leader are not disposed to prematurely celebrate the outcome of the long struggle. This reward for the fight they made is yet to come after the findings of the arbitration commission, assuming that the miners officially endorse the agreement Mr. Mitchell made. There is a belief that a general resumption of coal mining will be had by Monday. The district presidents who are now on the ground do not all share in this belief and some of them are opposed to pushing matters. A convention could not be held before Saturday and they feel that one day is not enough to organize the body and permit of a full discussion of a proposition that is of the greatest importance to the miners.

Comment of Operators.

New York, Oct. 16.—Few of the representatives of the coal interests would discuss the present status of the coal situation, beyond expressing their belief that the commission named has a tremendous task before it. "It has a serious problem to solve," said President Olyphant of the Delaware and Hudson road. "The question of wages the men are to receive; how the men are to be paid in different mines and in different veins in the same mines are some of the questions. These are problems that men have grown gray headed trying to solve." E. B. Thomas, chairman of the executive board of the Erie road said: "I consider that the adjustment of differences will be a long drawn out and difficult undertaking." Discussing the possibility of getting coal into the market promptly after the mines resume, Mr. Olyphant said: "If the miners go to work at once we will be able to get coal here right away. I do not know anything about their going to work, but when they do go, everything that can carry coal will be pressed into service."

Prices Will Be Normal.

Wilkesbarre, Oct. 16.—The superintendent of one of the largest coal companies in the region was asked how long it would take after the miners returned to work to bring about normal coal prices and in reply he said: "It is the general understanding among the companies that only normal prices shall prevail after there is a general resumption of mining. All through the strike the companies, with the exception of a few individual operators, have not charged abnormal prices. The middleman or retail dealers have taken advantage of the situation and put up the price. It is possible they will keep them until the public is fully supplied and the demand is not greater than the production."

PRESENTED WITH BADGE.

Grand Army of Republic Emblem For President Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 16.—A committee headed by Mr. B. H. Warner, chairman of the citizens' executive committee, of the recent national encampment of the G. A. R., and Hon. J. H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture, called at the White House and presented to President Roosevelt a gold G. A. R. badge commemorative of the national encampment. The badge is of gold, handsomely embossed and engraved. The president expressed to the committee his appreciation of the act.

Peary's Operation Successful.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—The following statement in reference to Lieutenant Peary's operation and general condition has been given out: "The operation itself was simple and successful. A speedy recovery is anticipated and it is thought that it will not be long before he will be able to resume his official duties in the navy. The operation does not in any way affect his physical condition, saving that it will facilitate his walking, it will contribute to even better health. He is in first class condition physically, in spite of his prolonged and necessarily trying experience for the last few years in the Arctic region."

Will Cut Down Army.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The order reducing the army to the minimum of 59,600 men is in course of preparation at the war department and is one of a series of orders that have been issued cutting down the regular army as the decrease could be made as a result of reduction of the forces in the Philippines. The manner in which this order will be carried out is to discontinue enlistments until the number fixed has been reached.

Woodworkers' Combination.

Memphis, Oct. 16.—A strong effort is being made in Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas to organize every sawmill firm of any importance into the hardwood manufacturers' association of the United States. The organization is being brought about for self protection and to arrange a uniform schedule of inspection satisfactory to the manufacturers.

Boers For Mexican Colony.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 16.—Commander J. D. Snyman, a noted Boer fighter, is here en route to the City of Mexico to confer with President Diaz relative to a large tract of land in Mexico to be colonized by Boer refugees. General Snyman said he was going to Mexico at the suggestion of Dr. Muller, envoy of the Orange Free State, who visited Mexico about five months ago.

General Wilson Accepts.

Washington, Oct. 16.—General John M. Wilson, United States army, retired, who was named by the president as one of the members of the strike commission, has called upon Secretary of War Root, announcing his acceptance of the appointment.

Vanderbilt a Lieutenant.

New York, Oct. 16.—Company D, Twelfth regiment, N. G. N. Y., has unanimously elected, Cornelius Vanderbilt first lieutenant. He has been identified with the regiment some time as second lieutenant.

Volcano In Eruption.

Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, Oct. 16.—There was a slight eruption of the Soufriere volcano and it increased to a full eruption. It was accompanied by a fall of sand. Kingstown was not damaged.

Irish Leader Sentenced.

Sligo, Ireland, Oct. 16.—P. A. McHugh, M. P., editor of the Sligo Champion, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment at hard labor after having been convicted of conspiracy and intimidation.

COAL GOES TO BOTTOM.

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Bushels Are Lost.

Cattlettsburg, Ky., Oct. 16.—One hundred and fifty thousand bushels of bituminous coal, a portion of the cargo of the advance guard of the coal fleet bound from Pittsburg to the south, were sunk in the Ohio river near here as a result of a collision of the towboat Fred Wilson with a dike two miles above this city. In addition to the coal lost, 11 barges were sunk, while a number which were cut loose and floated down the river were secured only after a hard struggle.

The fleet led by the towboat Gleaner, with 12 barges and the towboat Fred Wilson, with 22, had reached the Twelve Pole dike, two miles above this city, when the Fred Wilson missed the channel and her front barges swinging around struck the end of the dike, becoming immediately submerged. On account of the size of the tows there was general difficulty in managing the boats and in the confusion of the next few minutes 11 barges were sunk, eight of them going down in the channel. At the same time the rest of the barges of the Gleaner and the Wilson broke loose and started to float down the river. The crews of both boats after repeated efforts, succeeded in picking up the scattered barges, but it is feared that a large portion of the coal which was sunk will be lost.

Declare Nominations Invalid.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 16.—The Dauphin county court has declared invalid the certificates of the state nominees of the Pattison and Pennypacker factions of the Union party. This action disposes of a bitter contest growing out of an effort to secure the Union party endorsement for the rival candidates for governor on Democratic and Republican tickets. The convention was originally called together in the interest of Robert E. Pattison, the Democratic nominee, but it was captured by friends of ex-Judge Pennypacker, the Republican candidate and the dispute was brought to the court in this city for settlement.

Bishop McCabe Returns.

New York, Oct. 16.—Bishop McCabe of the Methodist church has returned to this country after being absent from the United States for 11 months, during which he has visited the missions of his church in South America, Germany, Switzerland and Denmark. His trip to Europe was largely to enable Bishop Vincent, who has charge of the missions on that continent, to return to the United States on business connected with the church. While in South America, Bishop McCabe says he made some interesting discoveries.

Bound and Gagged.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 16.—While Mrs. J. C. Stone was alone in her home a man suddenly appeared at the door and by threats compelled her to be silent while he rifled her trunk. She attempted to interfere, but the intruder drew a pocket knife and jabbed her repeatedly in the arm as she approached him. She was cut no less than a dozen times. Finally the burglar seized her and with a mattress rope bound and gagged her. He secured only $1.05 and departed, leaving the woman helpless. The police have no clue to his identity.

Shipments Increase.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 16.—Since Monday night, the Reading Railroad company has brought down from the Schuylkill region 359 cars of coal, equal to 16,770 tons, the largest quantity shipped in any 72 hours since the strike. It is evident there is already an easier tone in the coal market judging by the shipments. It is believed here that some of the coal shipped was released from storage.

Hot Times In Parliament.

London, Oct. 16.—During an exciting scene in the house of commons, Premier Balfour moved the suspension of John O'Donnell and the latter crossed the floor, stood in front of Mr. Balfour, shouted defiance and shook his fist in the premier's face. Mr. O'Donnell was suspended by a vote of 341 to 51.

Miss Stone Present

Oberlin, O., Oct. 16.—The third day's session of the American board for foreign missions was crowded with events for the delegates and town people. Miss Ellen Stone has arrived in Oberlin and was present at the board's sessions. Miss Stone will give an address. The crowd was so great at the night session that an overflow meeting was held.

For Uniform License.

Cincinnati, O. Oct. 16.—At the recent meeting of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association, President Friberg of this city was directed to appoint a committee to formulate a model uniform liquor license law to be presented to all state legislatures for enactment.

REVOLUTIONISTS GAIN

Castro's Government Upon the Verge of Dissolution.

THIRTEEN THOUSAND TROOPS BATTLE.

Fiercest Conflict In Venezuela's History Rages — Valencia Filled With Wounded Soldiers. Affairs In Haiti.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Oct. 16.—The battle near La Victoria, Venezuela, between the army commanded by President Castro, and the revolutionary forces, which began Monday morning and resulted in the retirement of President Castro to La Victoria Tuesday afternoon, was resumed again fiercely at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. At that time the president had received reinforcements and had over 6,000 men engaged with 7,000 revolutionists. The artillery played a part never before seen in Venezuela. Shortly before 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the revolutionists appear to have gained a slight advantage. The president's artillery, which numbered 15 guns, had been reduced to four guns. La Victoria was crowded with wounded and there were no provisions in the town.

The British cruiser Indefatigable has left Laguaira for Tucacas with provisions for the foreign residents there, some of whom are said to be dying of hunger as a result of the concentration measures adopted by the Venezuelan authorities. The Indefatigable, to accomplish her mission, will have to run the blockade of Tucacas. The German cruiser Vineta has also left Laguaira and it is regarded as probable that she is also bound for Tucacas. The French cruiser Suchet has arrived at Carupano and entered a protest against the arbitrary arrest of a French citizen who was subsequently released with an apology.

Fighting took place Monday and Tuesday between the government forces and revolutionists at Carupano. The German cruiser Panther has forced the entrance of the Orinoco river and has reached Ciudad Bolivar, to protect German interests there.

United States Minister Bowen has announced that he will not ask for a guard of blue jackets to protect the United States legation at Caracas, and all his colleagues will follow Mr. Bowen's example.

Battle Continues.

Washington, Oct. 16.—A cablegram received at the state department from United States Minister Bowen at Caracas reads: "Battle Victoria continuing." It is believed here that Castro is making his last stand at this point and that the fate of the revolution will be determined by this engagement.

To Recall Troops.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 16.—Governor Stone will probably withdraw the troops in the mining regions as soon as the strike is officially declared off by President Mitchell and the miners indicate their willingness to go to work. Adjutant General Stewart is the only official of the national guard on duty at headquarters and he declines to discuss the strike situation or the probable time or manner in which the troops will be withdrawn. The cost to the state of keeping its entire military force on duty in the mining regions is enormous and the governor is very anxious for a speedy settlement of the strike so that the troops may be withdrawn.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 16.—Vice Chancellor Emory has appointed Chauncey G. Parker of this city receiver of the New Jersey Agricultural Chemical company. The assets are placed at $104,261, and the liabilities exclusive of the $500,000 capital stock $179,793.

The Kanawha Fuel Company, a combine controlling the output of a large number of coal mines along the C. and O., is still holding out against the strikers. It refuses to recognize the miners' union. That's a nice crowd composing the company. It's all right, of course, for them to combine, but all wrong for the miners to do anything of the kind. Somebody ought to go after this company in the U. S. Courts. It's the successor of the C. and O. Fuel Company that was driven out of existence a few years ago.

The Republican party, always choosing expediency above principle, taking a new tack on a proposition as readily as it held its old one, is up to its old tricks again. This time it is on the tariff question. Who has not heard the battle cry, "Protect our infant industries?" Who has not heard the Republican spell-binders in a dozen campaigns pronounce their benedictions upon protection, saying that it would build up our infant industries, and always declaring that it was for those infant industries! But, a change has come over them now. They know that our industries have long passed the "infant" period, and they realize that no amount of heroics about "infant industries" will longer serve to pull the wool over the eyes of the people on that proposition. Hence they have changed front. They have told the "infant industry" plea to go away back and sit down, and in its stead they have invented a new plea for protection. Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, tariff-ridden Iowa, has the honor of having trotted it forward. It is this, "We must have protection because the difference in the wage scale demands it." That is a beautiful and finely spun little reason, yet, in actual practice it won't go. Russia has a high protective tariff and yet she pays the lowest wages of any country in Europe. Austria and Germany and France follow her with the same sort of a tariff, and yet in each instance the higher the tariff the lower the wages. American wages do not grow out of the tariff; they come from the natural superiority of American workmen. President Roosevelt recognized that fact and admitted it in his message to Congress. The Dolliver phrase will not beguile many voters to stand by a tariff that robs them every time they go to market.

To show the absolute inconsistency of the Republican party on tariff and trust questions a few facts which are beyond the pale of controversy will suffice. They assert that there are trusts in "free trade England," trusts which force up prices just as our trusts do, and without let or hindrance slich the consumer. On the other hand they assert that if the tariff be taken off trust-made articles it will force prices down and keep them down, but down at a figure below living profit. President Roosevelt took that position in his Western speeches. Now the question arises, if tariff revision, or even free trade on trust-cornered articles will hold the prices down here, how could it be possible, as the Republicans assert, that there could be English trusts fixing arbitrary prices? Trusts cannot fix arbitrary prices in England, and any Republican who asserts that they can misrepresents the facts, or he is grossly ignorant of them. To prove this statement consider the case of steel rails. We are shipping thousands of tons of steel rails into England and selling them there for $23 per ton. Now then could any English steel trust force the English consumer to pay $28 per ton for rails, as our steel trust forces the American user of steel rails to do? That is a question upon which an answer is invited. And the illustration might be extended indefinitely. There can be no inflation of prices in England. Should a trust attempt such a thing how soon would America and Germany and France put a stop to such a thing. They have to keep prices down in order to meet foreign competition. That is what the American consumer wants. He believes with Mr. Babcock that the consumer needs a little protection, too. But the sort of protection he wants is protection from extortionate monopoly.

 TAILOR-MADE ***

SUITS TO ORDER

We are pleased to announce to our patrons that we have completed arrangements with the best special order manufacturer of tailo-made suits in the United States, and are prepared to show you a beautiful collection of styles and fashion plates. You can select your own materials, dictate the linings and style, and have the suit made on lines that will exactly please you.

The army of women who insist upon having their suits made to order especially for them is constantly increasing. The reason is easily explained by those who have tried it.

The system of measurement is a patented self-proving system. It is by far the latest and most advanced method of constructing fine garments, and every experienced woman who investigates the merits of this system becomes at once an enthusiastic advocate.

We have been appointed exclusive agents and guarantee that the workmanship, style and material can only be equaled by men tailors who get, as a rule, from $35 to $125 a suit.

This great system enables us to supply you with these high-class garments to your own measure at from $15 to $60 per suit.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Three Vacancies To Be Filled at the Approaching Election.

Three vacancies in the Board of Education are to be filled at the approaching November election.

Such is the opinion of City Attorney Wood, although some members of the board contend that the vacancies are not to be filled at this election, probably basing their opinion on that provision of the Constitution stating that municipal officers are not to be chosen at the time members of Congress are elected. But another section of the Constitution, in regard to filling vacancies in municipal officers, provides that if the vacancy occurs three months before the next general election it shall be filled at the election, the time intervening between the vacancy and the election to be filled by appointment.

The Court of Appeals, in three separate cases, has decided that Section 152 of the Constitution, in regard to filling vacancies, applies to offices for towns and cities and to offices created by the Legislature, as well as constitutional offices. The court holds that "vacancies in city offices may be filled at the next succeeding election, although city officers are not then elected, and an election to fill a vacancy in a city office may be held at the time of a Congressional election."

The vacancies in the School Board are in the First, Fourth and Sixth wards. They occurred back about the first of the year and were caused by the resignation of Mr. R. A. Cochran, Mr. Geo. T. Hunter and Mr. S. A. Shanklin. The Board elected Mr. Frank Clark to take Mr. Cochran's place, the late J. W. Foxworthy in Mr. Hunter's place, and Mr. Sherman Arn in Mr. Shanklin's place.

In order to get names on poll books, candidates to fill these vacancies must file petitions with the County Clerk fifteen days before the date of the election, which occurs this year Tuesday, Nov. 4th.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

The Third District Convention at Dover a Success.

The Dover News says the annual district Sunday school convention at that point was the best ever held there. The New adds: "Mr. John Duley, of Maysville, President of the county organization, was present and delivered a very able address on 'The Sunday School Work.'" Mr. Duley has entered enthusiastically into the work and his address was full of enthusiasm from start to finish. If any were present who did not feel an interest in the work before hearing Mr. Duley, they certainly did after hearing him, for if he could not interest one in this special work, who could?

"These subjects were interspersed with some very fine music, which was furnished by Messrs. Munzing and True and Misses Munzing and Cain. Mr. Boyd K. Muse, of Maysville, also sang three solos which were well received by his hearers. Misses Munzing and Cain sang two duets which charmed the convention. These two young ladies with Messrs. Munzing and True composed a quartette which sang 'Hark! Hark! My Soul.' This piece was so well received that Mr. Duley at once requested them to attend the county convention at Maysville on Saturday, Nov. 8th, and sing for them. "Messrs. J. W. Osborne, C. K. Dickey and W. F. Munzing were appointed as a committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year. They reported R. P. Pollitt for President, Wm. McNutt for Vice President, J. Elgin Anderson for Secretary and J. W. Osborne for Treasurer. Their report was adopted. "Mr. R. P. Pollitt was elected a delegate to the county convention and Miss Betta Hanna alternate."

USE PINEAPPLE

To Cure Diphtheria, and a Slice Will Remove Any Corn.

[Therapeutic Gazette.]

Pineapple, in virtue of its active principle, brometin, has considerable virtues as a proteid digestive. The texture of the fruit, however, is such that its undigestibility more than offsets this virtue. Dr. Wyatt Wingrave, however, finds that the expressed juice has a powerful solvent action upon plastic exudate, such as diphtheria membrane. This can be demonstrated in vitro, and though, owing to the shortness of contact, its solvent action on membrane on the throat is necessarily slight, he finds that it exerts a decidedly softening effect on the stringy exudation, so as to admit of its easy detachment. He has also used with success a thin slice of pineapple, applied for eight hours, as a means of softening the horny epidermis of corns, ready for removal. Within his own special province he has employed the juice usefully for softening the horny papillae in keratosis of the tonsil.

THE BEE HIVE

Black Cat Hosiery!

There is a story told of an Irishman who being so bothered by an agent of a stove company went down to see their wonderful make of stoves. After looking them over, he was told by the anxious salesman that if he would purchase one of their stoves he would save half of his coal bills. "That being the case," replied Pat, "I will take two of them and save my whole coal bill." We do not say that people that wear Black Cat Hosiery save half of their hosiery bills, but we do believe that the Black Cat Hosiery is the best hose manufactured to-day, and the people that wear them say they don't have to wear "darned hose" any more. They are different from other hose, they are so elastic, so closely woven, such a good black.

MERZ BROS

RIVER NEWS.

Coal Fleet Delayed By a Disastrous Wreck Above Catlettsburg—Other Items.

The Courier has succeeded the Wells in the Chilo trade.

The ferryboat Champion burned at Gallipolis and the propeller Ensign sank.

The Board of Trade will appoint ten delegates to represent Mayesville at the approaching convention of the Ohio River Improvement Association at Parkersburg.

The big Pittsburg coal fleet due down Tuesday was delayed by a disastrous accident to the steamer Fred Wilson at Twelve Pole, two miles above Catlettsburg. The Wilson struck the dike, sinking eleven of her twenty-two barges. The sunken barges blocked the channel, and as most of the fleet were behind the Wilson the accident caused a serious delay. Dynamite was used yesterday to clear the channel. Some of the boats succeeded in passing the wreck during the day, and it was thought the channel could be cleared by this morning. Unless the boats get past the obstruction to-day the probability is that they will have to tie up and await another rise. Fully 150,000 bushels of coal was lost by the sinking of the barges. The Wilson met with another slight accident just after leaving Pittsburg.

A Deaf and Dumb Wedding.

KENTUCKY ODDFELLOWS.

List of Officers Elected By the Grand Lodge This Week—Meeting Next Year at Lexington.

At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge in Hopkinsville this week the election of officers for ensuing year resulted as follows: M. L. Downs, of Carrollton, Grand Master; B. M. Arnett, Nicholasville, Deputy Grand Master; D. L. Bailey, Louisville, Grand Warden; R. G. Elliott, Lexington, Grand Secretary; Geo. W. Morris, Louisville, Grand Treasurer; J. Whit Potter, Bowling Green, Grand Representative.

Lexington was selected as the next place of meeting.

By unanimous vote a resolution was adopted expressing the Grand Lodge's high appreciation of the action of Gov. Beckham, Attorney-General Pratt and Judge Emmet Field in preventing the McGovern-Corbett fight in Louisville.

The annual report of the Grand Secretary gave the following statistics: Number of lodges June 30, 1901, 188; lodges instituted during the year, 7; total lodges June 30, 1902, 194. Five lodges have been instituted in the new lodge year. Members reported last year, 11,500; initiated during the year, 1,477; admitted by card, 153; reinstated, 168; total 13,298; decrease, 1,025; total membership, 12,273.

The report of the Grand Treasurer showed a balance on hand September 1, 1902, of $5,052.10.

In referring to the Widows' and Orphans' Home at Lexington Grand Master Cole said: "The management is all that could be desired. No children, under all the circumstances, are more tenderly cared for than these wards intrusted to us by the brethren who have passed to the Great Beyond."

Presiding Elder E. G. B. Mann leaves this afternoon to conduct quarterly meeting at Clover Hill, Fleming County. He will spend to-night with his friend, Rev. James Vernon, of Nicholasville, who is conducting a protracted meeting at the Elizaville Christian Church. From Clover Hill, Rev. Mann will go to Lexington to attend a meeting of the Presiding Elders of the Kentucky Conference next Tuesday.

Shields' Cadet Band, of Georgetown, O., is furnishing music for the Yellow Ribbon fair at Aberdeen to-day and tomorrow. The band came over this morning and while in town serenaded the BULLETIN. Georgetown has reason to be proud of the Cadets, as some of their selections would do credit to most any band.

Hon. W. G. Dearing is improving.

Elder Lynn, of Portsmouth, will preach at the Dover Christian Church Sunday.

The Court of Appeals has decided that people who lose money in bucket shop speculations can recover it from the winner.

The Portsmouth Times says Sam Noel, an inmate of the infirmary of that place, has been allowed to come to Maysville to live with his sister.

Mrs. Dan Osborne, of the county, is reported in a critical condition. She is unable to take any nourishment, and her friends fear the end is not far off.

The funeral of the late William Ort, of Aberdeen, took place this morning at 9 o'clock at the Aberdeen M. E. Church, and the remains were interred in the Maysville Cemetery.

The eclipse of the moon came off on schedule time last night, and those who sat up to witness the sight had a fine view of it, as the sky from 12 to 1:30 o'clock was free of clouds overhead.

Four canneries are in operation in Brown County this season, one at Russellville, one at Hamersville, one at Georgetown and one at Ripley. It is estimated that the output will be over a half million cans.

Near South Carrollton, Ky., the W. P. Robertson Developing Company, in sinking a shaft at that place, struck a nine-foot vein of fine coal at a depth of ninety feet below the surface. There are 4,000 acres in the block.

TRIBUTES OF SYMPATHY

Covered the Grave of Mrs. Jane Donovan. Her Memory Hallowed by Many Good Deeds.

With sorrowed hearts the relatives and friends of Mrs. Jane Donovan assembled at St. Patrick's Church yesterday morning to offer their last tribute of love and tender regard.

At the conclusion of the sacred service, whose every word breathes solace to the Catholic heart, Rev. P. M. Jones spoke with eloquence and deep feeling of Mrs. Donovan's gentle ministrations of kindness and duty which leave a memory hallowed by the divinity of good deeds.

He said she was an example of virtues and valiant womanhood in the relations of mother, wife, friend and Catholic. Gentle, retiring, she went through life silently scattering kindnesses that evoke loving tributes to her memory now. At the cemetery Father Jones was assisted in the last services by Rev. Ryan of Winchester and Rev. DeBruyn of Mayslick. A profusion of flowers mutely attested the love of many friends and the new made mound was covered by the fragrant tributes of sympathy.

Lecture, To-night at High School.

W.H. MEANS, Manager

We'll Thaw Out in the Spring.

What is the use of worrying about the price of coal? What is the use of harrowing the mind, the heart, and soul? The thing to do is find a pose that one's good taste will please, and hold it till the winter time brings on a good old freeze; And then we'll hibernate as calm as any grizzly bear. Serenely trusting that we'll thaw out when spring is in the air.

So, strike a plastic attitude, or posture statuesque. Ascend a little pedestal, or sit besides your desk. Assume a pose recumbent, or heroic, if you choose. And go into cold storage, and you'll find you cannot lose. For, when the flow'rets bud again, and birdlets take to wing, The gentle warmth will waken you—we'll thaw out in the spring.

'Tis true, we'll miss Thanksgiving day, and Christmas day, as well: And New Year's resolutions we'll not get a chance to tell; But all the time the world is white with frost and ice and snow, We will be wintering in sleep a la the E-kimo. And when the April breezes bring the little birds to sing, We'll find we've dodged the coal bill—and we'll thaw out in the spring.

There may be pleasant dreams to warm us while we take that sleep, And, glory be! despite the trusts, this freezing up is cheap. There's naught to do but stand or sit, however, we desire, And cease repining just because we haven't any fire. And when the grass is green again, and joy in everything, We'll get some chilblain antidote—and thaw out in the spring. —Baltimore American.

"The Power of Truth."

"The Power of Truth," a melo-drama in five acts, is the attraction that makes a bid for popular favor at the Empire Theater this week. There is the usual heartless villain, who, as the leader of a gang of "white caps," makes things very interesting for the hero and his lady love. The hero in this case is the District Attorney of Shelbyville, who for his double presumption of loving the only pretty girl in the village and the one upon whom the villain has cast his gloating eyes and for sending several of the "white caps" up for long terms, gets himself shot at and stabbed at, but manages to hold his own, and at the last comes out on top and marries the girl who has caused all the trouble.—Washington City Post, Sept. 30th.

At the Washington Opera House Monday, October 20th. Seats on sale Saturday morning at Nelson's.

The worries of a weak and sick mother are only begun with the birth of her child. By the day her work is constantly interrupted and at night her rest is broken by the wailing of the peevish, puny infant. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It lightens all the burdens of maternity, giving to mothers strength and vigor, which they impart to their children. In over thirty years of practice Dr. Pierce and his associate staff of nearly a score of physicians have treated and cured more than half a million suffering women. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence is strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Anna Owsley has qualified as administratrix of Robert Owsley, with T. R. Lukins as surety. John Clarke, Joseph Peed and Charles Duncan were appointed to appraise the personal estate.

A band of Russian Gypsies who were recently run out of Portsmouth, Ironton and other up-river cities struck Maysville Thursday afternoon. They were traveling in wagons, and were a motley crowd of men, women and children. If cleanliness is next to Godliness, they were a wicked gang, as they seemed utter strangers to water and soap. They were not permitted to linger very long in Maysville. It is said the gang are en route to their winter quarters near Cincinnati.

PERSONAL.

Misfortunes Never Come Singly.

[Dover News.]

Mr. C. T. Biggers, who recently had two of his best horses badly injured by an attack from a vicious boar hog, had the misfortune to lose another horse a few days ago. The animal fell in a hollow and death resulted. He has only one horse left now, and here is more proof that one's troubles never come singly, but usually pile up about three deep, as in this case.

The Kentucky Bankers' Association began its annual convention Wednesday in Paducah. A feature of the business session was the adoption of a resolution presented by Col. J. D. Powers pledging the support of the association to the plan for a Kentucky exhibit at the World's Fair in St. Louis. The resolution, which was unanimously adopted, provides for the assessment of all the banks in the State to raise a fund for the exhibit.

Maysville Republicans were greatly wrought up last evening by the discovery that Mr. W. H. Castner had failed to file with the Secretary of State his certificate of nomination. Mr. Castner was a little late in attending to this duty, but his name will go on the official ballot all the same.

Anna Short has sold her interest in a house and lot on East Fourth street to John T. Short.
